Winter Doings Among Prominent Leaders of the Season's Gayety.

The Gamut of the Week's Events Sounded in Short Paragraphs-Guests and Entertainers-Personal Mention Reduced to a Compact Compass.

The first of a winter series of dancing assemblies was given last evening in the Scranton Bicycle club house, on Washington avenue. Last season the affairs were productive of considerable pleasure and enthusiasm, and judging from the success of the enjoyable affair of last night, the assemblies of this winter promise to rival those preceding. The musical, floral decoration, refreshment and other features were adyoung ladies: Miss Archbald, Miss nership with W. W. Spry, formerly of Belin and Miss Hunt. Mrs. N. G. Conspicuous among the social functions of the near future which are engaging the attention and pleasant ar ticipation of a large number of people is the Kirmess to be given Feb. 4 for the benefit of the Lackawanna hospital. The men and women having the management of the Kirmess are making haste slowly. They realize that it is an undertaking of magnitude in which small mistakes may reap large and undesirable results. However, those having the affair in charge are among Scranton's most practical and best known people who will accomplish an end which will reflect a great deal of

IN LOCAL THEATERS.

There are no more popular people in the dramatic profession than the Gormans, John, James and George, who will appear here tonight at the Academy of Music in their new comedy "The Gilhoolys Abroad." No doubt their many friends will greet them with a crowded house. Their new departure is said to be a great go. John Gorman as Jonathan Tubbs and George Gorman as Owen Gilhooly are two of the big hits in farce-comedy this season. "The Gilhoolys Abroad" will be the at traction at the Academy of Music tonight.

"The Passing Show," the attraction at the Frothingham on Monday evening, Dec. 3, is well named, for it is a burlesque made up of hits from the most popular plays, operas and specialties of the play. The beauty of it all is cate tasks. What eles but a thoroughly artistic and enjoyable entertainment can be expected when such people as J. E. Henshaw, George Schiller, of "Evangeline" fame: Charlie Ross, Lucy Daly, Vernona Jarbeau, Gus Pixley, William Cameron and a score of other leading people who have made names for themselves appear on the stage. Altogether there are fully 110 people connected with the show. Among these are the pickaninnies, living pictures, and no

LOYAL LEGION OPENING.

Dunmore People Are Cordially Invited to Attend Tonight's Meeting. This evening at Dunmore will occur the grand opening of the Loyal Legion hall, formerly Boyle's hall. This society, consisting of some of the best people of Dunmore, believing that it would be for the best interest of the society, has leased Boyle's hall, and intend opening it by inviting their friends and the public to participate in the exercises. The hall has been newly furnished and fitted up and will make a good place for the young people of the town to pass their Saturday nights. The young people are to be congratulated on the splendid work they have accomplished since they started in the town, and they feel assured that they will have the sympathy and encouragement of the people of Dunmor in the future as they have in the past. They intend giving, during the winter months, special meetings, and a

"If the seeking of souls, one by one, is an essential part of the life and idea of this brotherhood, so the singleness. the personal individuality of the seeker seems to have been made just as important. Your idea was not to bring upon a single soul the combined power of an organization, not to send the men after one, but to send one man after one. You were not to work by meetings, by addresses, by printed appeals, or by the power of numbers, but the messenger of love was to be carried with directness of single hearted personal sympathy. "The one sought was to feel, not that society was trying to reach him, but that there was one warm, earnest, single heart, which was in love trying to get near him and which cared for him. The brotherhood is only to hold you together, to cheer and encourage the members. I charge you to be zealously true to this ideal. Let the brotherhood help and strengthen you individually, you have a mighty mission to win the young men of the land for Christ and His church. You are only beginning to touch it, you are but in the shallow waters of your first efforts. Launch out into the deep and let down your nets into the draught."

The Great "Andrew" Was in Pittsburg and Exercised His Healing Power on an Old Man in the Street.

In the city of Pittsburg while passing along the streets one stormy day the great "Andrew" noticed an old man slowly making his way along the slippery walk scarcely able to keep in an upright position while leaning heavily upon a pair of crutches with the assistance of a motherly old lady, who every now and then gave him a word of encouragement and a helping hand. The snow was falling and the wind was blowing bleek and cold. The features of the man bespoke the pain and misery he was suffering at every step, while the good and faithful wife plainly showed the care and burden under which she was resting from the poverty and helpless condition of her dependen husband. The doctor stopped and quickly stepping up to the old couple he made a few rapid passes over the old man's body and limbs, took his crutches from him and threw them in the gutter, commanding him to straighten up and walk on. The old man took a few steps forward and then stopped and carefully examined his legs and arms, looked blankly at his wife and said, Mary, what did that man do to me? She an swered, Oh, nothing, papa. He only made a few foolish passes over you with his hands and mumbled something to himself. I guess he is some poor, crazy fool. Shall I get your crutches. No no; I don't need them-see. I can walk: I can walk. Thank God that man has cured me. Mary, I am well, see how I can walk. And as the crowd gathered around the old couple, asking all manner of questions of who that man was and how it all happened, the doctor slipped away, pondering over the vagaries and miseries of humanity. Mr. C. W. Campbell—Dear Sir: I have given my boy, Freddie, 7 years old, some of Dr. Campbell's Magic Worm Sugar and Tea. and to my surprise this afternoon about 2 o'clock he passed a tapeworm measuring about 35 feet in length, head and all. I have it in a bottle and any person wishing to see it can do so by calling at my store. I had tried numerous other remedies recommended for taking tapeworms, but all failed. In my estimation Dr. Campbell's is the greatest worm remedy in existence.

ROOF TINNING AND SOLDERING

icism. "The Red Badge of Courage" is the best piece of fiction Mr. Crane has yet written. Don't fail to read the opening chapters on December 3.

"The Red Badge of Courage" is all done away with by the use of HART-MAN'S PATENT PAINT, which consists of ingredients well-known to all, it can be supplied to tin, galvanized tin, sheet from roots, also to brick dwellings, which will prevent absolutely any crumbling, cracking or breaking of the brick. It will outlast tinning of any kind by many years, and it's cost does not exceed one-fifth that of the cost of tinning. Is sold by the job or pound. Contracts taken by ANTONIO HARTMANN, ST Birch St.
